

A Lifetime of Love:

The Importance of Friends, Family, and Belonging

Maritza, age 9

The Art Contest is open to children, youth, and elders with experience in California's courts or child welfare system.

Children, Youth and Elders Art Contest

This Year's Theme:

A Lifetime of Love: The Importance of Friends, Family, and Belonging

A Collaboration of the Center for Families, Children & the Courts, Administrative Office of the Courts, and the California Child Welfare Co-Investment Partnership

Submission: Original art, such as photography, collage, drawing, or painting, 1-page, 20" x 22" limit, accompanied by a completed entry form. Printable entry forms are available at: www.co-invest.org and www.courtinfo.ca.gov/programs/cfcc

Call 415-865-7739 or 916-551-1431 to obtain a copy by mail.
Submissions that are copied or traced will not be accepted.

Selection Criteria: Selections will be based on originality, quality of presentation, and representation of the contest theme, "A Lifetime of Love: The Importance of Friends, Family, and Belonging."

Eligibility: Children, youth, and elders with experience in California's courts or child welfare system.

Deadline: Postmarked by Oct. 16, 2009 (2010 Calendar – Art from Children, Youth and Adults with experience in the CA foster care system)
Postmarked by Jan. 15, 2010 (California Courts – Children, Youth & Elder Art)

Mail to: Art Contest c/o CFPIC, 925 L Street, Suite 340, Sacramento, CA 95814,
OR c/o CFCC, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102.

Gift certificate prizes will be awarded to winners and all contestants will receive a certificate of participation. Submissions cannot be returned. Selected works may be used in printed materials and publications and displayed at court and child welfare-related conferences and events.

Questions?

Contact

Mia Stizzo at 916-551-1431 or
mia.stizzo@cfpic.org

or

Ethel Mays at 415-865-7579 or
ethel.mays@jud.ca.gov